NOTES, CONTINUED

Secrets:

Nar always tells a story about the Stormfather appearing to them during a highstorm and calling for service and devotion. In truth, while drunk, Nar accidently killed a child and joined the church to avoid prosecution.

Nar doesn't really believe in gods, and the idea of the Almighty seems silly to him, just as people who worship him. However, as an ardent, Nar never speaks up about those beliefs.

While serving highprince Hatham, Nar discovered that his lineage and claim for the title are very weak at best.
